

Betsy McGee

-
-
-

Betsy McGee is a Fort Lauderdale native and a graduate of Pine Crest School Fort Lauderdale Campus. Betsy attended Texas Christian University and The University of Florida studying business administration. In 1988, Betsy returned from college to work in the family business, Aluminum Distributing, Inc... Founded in 1958 by her father Alan Fitzgerald, a former UDT Frogman, Aluminum Distributing, more recently known as ADI Metal, is a Certified Woman Business Enterprise specializing in Worldwide Wholesale Metals Distribution for Marine and Industrial Applications.

ADI Metal, now, wholly owned and operated by Betsy, continues the long-term tradition of Solution-Based metals distribution supporting domestic and international metal fabrication and manufacturing with the supply of quality raw materials for industries including Commercial and Private Shipbuilding and Repair, Oil, Gas and Heavy Industry, having placed product in more than 70 countries over the course of 55 years.