

Kim Sweers is Managing Partner / Majority Owner of FB Marine Group, one of America's leading luxury yacht and boat dealerships. FB Marine Group is headquartered in Pompano Beach, Florida with two additional locations in Fort Lauderdale and Aventura, Florida. Established in 1994, the company has over 45 team members and offers new and pre-owned boats, brokerage services, parts and service, dry and wet storage, transportation, financing, registration, and extended warranties. Kim is responsible for all day to day operations and directly oversees the company's service departments and government accounts division. She is responsible for developing and implementing strategic policies and programs to drive sales, service and profitable growth across the company. Her personal mission is to ensure that their internal and external customers receive the highest level of service, guidance and support.

A successful balance between family, faith, business, and charitable works has always been the foundation of Kim's family core values. She lives in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and has been married to Randy since 2002, and together they have a son, Chase, 11. Kim believes you're never complete until you change the life of one less fortunate. That inspiration has enabled her to make a difference in the community and leave a lasting legacy.

Kim currently sits on various community and industry boards including Broward Workshop, Winterfest Boat Parade, Community Foundation of Broward, and the Marine Industries Association of South Florida.

She was born and raised in Miami Beach, Florida, has an identical twin sister (Kari) and 5 other siblings, attended Archbishop Curley Notre Dame High School in Miami and graduated from Florida International University with a BA in Business Administration.
