

Kristi Mollis Biography

Ms. Kristi Mollis is the President/CEO of Everglades University overseeing the University's five campuses located in Boca Raton, Sarasota, Tampa, and Orlando, Florida & an Online Division. She has been the EU President for the past 15 years. President Mollis holds an MBA from Nova University and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration from Baldwin-Wallace University. Ms. Mollis was recognized in 2012 as the South Florida Business Leader of the year in Education

Ms. Mollis has over 27+ years of experience as an academic leader in post secondary education. From 2009-2013 President Mollis served as an elected Commissioner and held an office on the Executive Committee of the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges of Technology (ACCSC) a USDOE accrediting agency. She was honored by ACCSC in 2007 and awarded the 2007 Team Leader of the Year.

Ms. Mollis serves as an On-Site Evaluator for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and also served as an ACCSC Team leader conducting over 30+ announced and unannounced visits for these Commissions. President Mollis has been a VISTAGE member for over 13 years. President Mollis has attended over 85 professional development workshops including: USDOE, FLDOE, SACS, ACCSC, FAPSC, CCA, VA, SEVIS/INS, ICUF, Team Leader Training, Commissioner Training, Commissioner Meetings, and other regulatory body workshops.

Under her leadership Everglades University has grown from one campus to five locations, from a College to University status, from under 100 students to over 1,500 students, and moved from a national to a regional accreditation. Everglades University is a level III SACS Accredited University and member of the Independent Colleges and Universities of Florida (ICUF).