

Mary Carmichael is the President and Chief Executive Officer of DMR Consulting, in Panama City Beach, Florida. She has served as a small business, federal contractor for Department of Defense, Navy, and Army since 2012.

She received her Bachelor's in Education in 1984 from Florida State University and Master's degree from University of West Florida in 1992. Her executive leadership includes over 30 years' experience as a civil service employee with federal, state, and municipal agencies. As a public administrator, she was responsible for program efficiency, financial planning, capital improvements, new construction projects, operational management of government property, improvement of specialized services, and sustainment of government facilities.

The company was incorporated in State of Florida in 1998 and now has average workforce of 36 employees with annual gross revenue of $6 million. The Women-Owned Small Business (WOSB) 3rd party certification was received through the United States Women's Chamber of Commerce (USWCC) in 2013. The Commonwealth Institute recognized DMR as #31 in the "Top 50 Women-Led Businesses in Florida". The company continues to dedicate 100% of the company's resources to support the military and advanced technology for the warfighter.

.

.