

Monica P. Johnson - Bio

Monica P. Johnson is a prolific entrepreneur who likes nothing better than to start new businesses and make them profitable. She is continuously developing new business opportunities, especially in the aircraft industry marketplace.

Monica's entrepreneurial spirit was apparent from an early age. By the time she was 16 she had already acquired her degree in marketing from Florida International University (FIU). Soon afterwards, Monica began her journey at Aero-Thrust. She acquired her skills working for Commodore Aviation /Israel Aircraft Industries, and Pacific Airline Support. The variety of businesses she has owned include American Aircraft Services, DMS Aircraft Services, Inc., (aircraft industry business) and The Sonny Foundation (a not for profit organization. Most recently she acquired Thrust Tech Inc. (aircraft industry business) where she is focuses much of her time and attention.

Monica's favorite part of being an entrepreneur is seeing something grown from nothing into something successful, because it allows her to help others economically.

Despite her busy business career Monica makes time to be involved with community and professional organizations. She is a member of the board of the Sonny Foundation, President of the PTA at the Quest Center, Participate as a friend of Girl Power in Miami, member of the South Florida Aviation Maintenance Counsel.

Monica lives in Broward County with her husband Michael and their son Sonny and 2 dogs (Zeus and Pancho). When Monica is not working, she dedicating her time to her son Sonny, who is fully disabled, or fighting for causes to advance to care and support of families that have a family member that is fully disabled.