

Ms. Metzger has over 30 years of experience in the engineering field including management, design and construction. Over her career she has held office and regional management positions for an international firm, and has established offices for two regional firms. Ms. Metzger controls all day-to-day operations for MWI