

Bio-Nancy Robin

Nancy Robin is the CEO for Habit for Humanity of Broward. A former banking executive, with seasoned leadership and infrastructure building skills, Nancy left banking to explore how to make a bigger difference in the world. Nancy has extensive experience in leading organizations through start-up, change, revitalization, turn-a-rounds and accelerated growth. Decisive and results orientated with a signature servant leadership style has afforded her a strong track record of exceeding targets and team building success. Economic empowerment has always been a passion, Nancy has an extensive history on the volunteer side leading and serving several key non-profits over the years. She has Chaired the Urban League of Palm Beach County, the Red Cross of Broward County, and served on the Executive Boards for the YMCA of South Florida, The Boy Scouts Gulfstream Chapter, ArtServe of Broward County, as well as serving on the Boards of Jr Achievement of Palm Beach, The Florida Council of Economic Education, The Urban League of Broward County, multiple Chamber of Commerces and clubs. Early in her career she was afforded the opportunity to volunteer for Habitat and the passion for that mission drew her back to where she is today. Decent housing at an affordable price in a safe environment is a fundamental need and right. For Nancy, It is a dream come true to be able to utilize the skill sets she has developed over the years to a cause she is so passionate about.