

Suzette DiMascio, is the CEO and founder of CSI Specialty Group Florida.

As a thought leader, industry expert, frequent media contributor and sought after speaker on all things pharmacy related; Suzette's strategic insight on marketplace trends help align and enlighten this continually pivoting industry.

Under Suzette's leadership, CSI Specialty Group has become known as the industry's preeminent Specialty Pharmacy Leadership Consulting firm; offering strategic solutions to all healthcare market channels across the spectrum from health systems to manufacturers and was honored as one of Consulting Magazine's Fastest Growing Firms, ranking 5th out of 50 firms.

Suzette's passion for patient care is at the forefront in all programs CSI Specialty Group develops to support their client's endeavors to improve patient lives, every day. She has been instrumental in positioning CSI as a leading, free resource for educational programs on specialty pharmacy, as well as starting the industry's first podcast dedicated to specialty pharmacy which focuses on enlightening trends, highlighting leaders in the industry and uncovering ways to make the specialty pharmacy journey more successful for patients worldwide.

These attributes have granted accolades from other industry leaders, as Suzette delights in providing insight, education and mentorship, while still possessing an incredible voracity for learning herself. All she learns she passes forward, which has afforded her the title of "Queen of Specialty Pharmacy," offered by the American Pharmaceutical Purchasing Alliance, in addition to being named a Goldman Sach's "Top Growing Businesses"

Suzette and her husband call the heart of specialty pharmacy home, located in Central Florida, and they are proud parents of a West Point Class of 2019 cadet.
