

regERI by Kaufman Rossin is an all-in-one compliance monitoring tool that helps fintechs and financial institutions test for Regulation E error resolution compliance and stay on top of ongoing tracking and reporting. This risk intelligence tool leverages automation and AI to eliminate manual processes, increasing efficiency and expanding testing capacity. It can be used by organizations in-house or to monitor compliance in partner relationships.

- All-in-one system:

Document storage, tracking and reporting ... it's all here.

- Guided workflow:

Easy-to-follow prompts walk you through the process step-by-step.

- Real-time reporting:

A built-in business intelligence dashboard surfaces the latest data.

- Auto-generated observations: Generative AI* saves time by drafting insights based on your data, flagging potential compliance issues for your team to review.

- Powerful platform: Built on the Pega platform, RegERI leverages enterprise AI decisioning and workflow automation with scalable and flexible architecture.

AI-enabled features coming in summer 2024*
